BREED THEATRE. Viola Dana in "The Flower of No Man's Land," Feature For Today.

The Flower of No Man's Land, a five part Metro wonderplay, featuring Vi-ola Dana, is the feature at the Breed theatre for today and Saturday. This is Miss Dana's debut on the Metro programme, and special efforts were made to provide her with an unusually made to provide her with an unusually strong feature for her initial appearance. The story deals with a baby called Echo, who is left an orphan when her father, a miner, is robbed and killed in his hut. She is brought up by Kahoma, a good Indian, and loved by Big Bill, a rough, but tenderhearted miner. Boy Taibot, an operasinger, who loses his voice, is directed to go west. The stage coach is overturned and he is severely injured near

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass. - "I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E.

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."-Miss CLARICE MORIN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, neadache, dragging-down sensations fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Comound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided.

THE HOUSE ON THE HILL.

Its light like some sweet spirit!
And oh how wild the whippoorwin would call! how wildly weird shrill.
By that old house upon the hill.
And how I loved to hear it!

The tree is dead; the house is gone-The tree is dead; the house is gone—
The gray house by the almond-tree;
The whippoorwill that sang till dawn
Where blossoms pelied lane and lawn
Will sing no more for Spring and me
Dim in the moonlight swinging;
But this I know—when Spring draw on,
Back to that place my soul is drawn,
Where, glimmering in that tree long gone, That whippoorwill is singing.
